Senate Talk Called Farce By Tory Head

Premier Has Abandoned Whole Upper House Reform Policy, Declares Mr. Meighen

National Railway Flounders in Bog

Despite Exodus of Canadians, Canada Is Alright for Conservative Leader, "Even Under Mr. King"

LAMINGTON, Ont., Sept. 11.—Senate talk of farce is the Liberal party, right Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, told a large audience here today. Election after election brought forth the same announcement that the Liberals would do it, "but the only policy which the Government has toward the Senate is to get as many members into it as possible when they are in power."

"Now Mr. King apparently has abandoned his whole policy of Senate reform," continued Mr. Meighen. "All that he proposes to do now, according to the morning papers, is to prevent some senators from growing too old. The whole question of Senate reform is raised by the Premier to flap in front of the people and obscure the real issue, which they are called upon to decide."

Mr. King's Government Had No Solution for the Railway Situation, Mr. Meighen Declared, Especially Since the Government Has Run the Railway into the Financial Bog Where It Is at Present Floundering

Under a board which was incompetent and inexperienced, the railway had gone in for financial experiments which should never have been undertaken.

"Mr. King charged that I would interfere with the management of the railways," said Mr. Meighen. "I would not interfere with the operation of the railway, but I would interfere with its financial management of keeping away from the board advances for capital investment for such unwise purposes."

Why Canadians Leave

Turning to the immigration problem, Mr. Meighen made sarcastic references to the charges made by the Premier in York North. Mr. King charges, said Mr. Meighen, that he (Mr. Meighen) was the chief reason for lack of immigrants and a number of emigrants from Canada. This was absurd. The reason for the immigration policy was obvious. People in Canada could not find jobs. People intending to come to Canada were aware of this and so they did not come. Canada was not a place where work went to the United States.

"I will be last to go," said Mr. Meighen, in passing. "Canada is all right for me, even under Mr. King."

Stocks Going Up

"I think there's more than one stock going up today because they see the end of the King government," Mr. Meighen continued.

City's Land Commissioner Does Rushing Real Estate Business

Revival of Realty Selling Brings Nearly $14,000 Into City Hall Coffers in Last Ten Days—Winnipeggers Speak of Beginning of "Boom" Here

Strengthening of the local real estate market following the revival of interest in land occasioned by the success of the recent city auction sale, is being strikingly evidenced at the southeast corner of Port and Vancouver streets, for $3,500.

The city's seven most recent sales, two have been made to non-residents, demonstrating that outside buyers are taking an increasing interest in the Capital City of the Province.

A well-known Toronto business man in town yesterday, declared that he had frequently heard it said as far east as Regina and Winnipeg, that Victoria real estate was beginning to "boom."

Mr. James Vanderbilt Pike, of Albany, Oregon, bought the house and lot at the southeast corner of Port and Vancouver streets for $4,800.

Mr. J. W. McLeod, of Salmon Arm, B.C., bought the unimproved lot at the southeast corner of Port and Vancouver streets, for $3,500.

The city secured $3,500 for the house and lot at 1024 Port Street, between Vancouver and Cook streets.

Peace Speech By Socialist Stirs Geneva

Eloquent Appeal for Disarmament Brings Tremendous Ovation From League of Nations Delegates

M. Boncour Calls For New Parley

All Efforts to End Warfare Useless, Declares French Representative, Until Disarmament Is Achieved

GENEVA, Sept. 11.—Declaring that until disarmament is achieved all peace efforts of the League of Nations will be fruitless, Paul Boncour, of the French delegation, Socialist deputy and former Minister of Labor, in one of the most brilliant orations heard since the founding of the League, urged tonight that beginning immediately preparations must be made for a disarmament conference which should be summoned as soon as the security preparations with Germany have been brought to a successful conclusion.

M. Boncour's oration was a defence of the Geneva protocol. So remarkable was his effort and so masterly his direction of various counter-moves for permanent peace and so emotionally did he conjure up a picture of the millions of dead who had given up their lives to achieve peace that when he had finished the entire assembly arose and gave him an ovation such as never before has been heard in the history of that body.

Almost forgetting the rules, the delegates rushed up to M. Boncour, seized his hand and congratulated him.

Senating the unvoiced sentiment of the assembly, the president, Senator Raoul Dandurand, of Canada, immediately announced that any immediate attempt to translate the discourse into English must be so inadequate that it would be abandoned. He said that an English translation would be delivered in typewritten form to the English-speaking delegation tomorrow.

Maybe It's Erin Should Be Called "Tight" Little Isle

SEWRY, Ireland, Sept. 11.—"So much whisky and water" was drunk on the annual fair day at Kamlough, County Armagh, recently that the Kamlough water supply failed.

The clerk of the rural council officially reported this fact at the meeting of the council here today.

Mr. Woodward Sees Possible Rebellion Here

If Things Go on as at Present, Says Vancouver Member, Revolt May Be Developed in Canada

VANCOUVER, Sept. 11.—Determination of the West to stand up for what he termed its rights in freight rates equalization was expressed vigorously here tonight by Charles Woodward, M.P.P., at the meeting of the Vancouver City Liberal Association.

With reference to what he called the endeavor of Eastern interests against the freight rates equalization, Mr. Woodward sounded a warning that "if things continue to go on as they are, we are not far from a rebellion which will be developed in this country."

Those persons working against equal treatment of the West with the East, he declared, were enemies of Canada.

"Likewise," he said, "those who are working among us in the interests of our enemies, are a menace to Canada. If we have renegades and traitors seeking office, I say leave them at home."

Interpretation of the Westward flow of grain by interfering with the order of the railway board equalizing freight rates on grain, Mr. Woodward contended would amount to handing to a foreign port $15,000,000 as Canada's loss if the increased tonnage made possible Westward, was stopped. He suggested this amount into $10,000,000 gain or loss as the case might be, to this port, and $5,000,000 gain or loss to wheat growers.

Sir Adam Beck Leaves Fortune of $600,000

TORONTO, Sept. 11.—The will of Sir Adam Beck shows assets amounting to approximately $600,000. The major portion was bequeathed to his daughter, Mrs. Strathairn Hay; his brother, J. P. Beck, and his nephew, Horace Beck. There are bequests to business associates and employees and approximately $42,000 for charities.

Woman Claims Record; Carries Umbrella Sixty-One Years

LONDON, Sept. 11.—The record of an American having the same umbrella for forty-five years may be a record in America, but it has been eclipsed by many inhabitants of this country, where that implement is as necessary as a pair of shoes or a toothbrush.

Mrs. White, of Knebworth, Herts, who says her umbrella was a wedding present in 1864, sixty-one years ago, has it yet. It has been recovered only twice. Many persons assert they have carried their umbrellas between fifty and sixty years.

Death and Ruin Left Behind by Montreal Gale

One Man Killed and Several Injured in Sudden Cyclone—Havoc Created Among Houses

MONTREAL, Sept. 11.—A storm of cyclonic proportions broke over Montreal and district early this afternoon and lasted only a few minutes but in that brief time it had created havoc that will require considerable money and time to repair.

The force of the storm ripped off roofs, felled trees and power poles, held up street car traffic for periods varying from ten minutes to one hour and left many sections of the city without lights tonight. Long distance telephone lines between Montreal and Ottawa were crippled and the wires to the Maritimes, Three Rivers and Quebec, were put out of commission.

The storm, after its passage across the city, swept over the south shore and tonight reports of big property damage began to filter in to the city from sections across the river. Damage to the wires being done, the extent of the damage could not be ascertained.

Jury Refuses to Indict Accused Aerial Smuggler

SEATTLE, Sept. 11.—A federal grand jury refused here today to indict Lyle H. Swisher, arrested in Seattle June 17, when he lighted in a seaplane on Lake Washington with a cargo of liquor brought from Canada, and at present sought as a fugitive from justice, when it returned forty-one indictments and two non-true bills.

Swisher was charged before the jury with owning the Everett Brewing Co., Everett, Wash., where prohibition agents charged near beer was converted into Canadian four per cent beer by injecting wood alcohol.

Swisher and his wife were reported to have fled the country while at liberty on bail. Their mansion was offered for sale.

Thinks Titles Will Never Go

WINNIPEG, Sept. 11.—Titles will never be abolished in England as they have been in Canada because sale of titles in Britain is too great an income to political parties to be done away with. This is a statement made here by Hugh Martin, parliamentary editor of the London Daily News and member of the British Press delegation touring Canada as guests of the C.P.R.

WOODWORK BURNED TO DISTILL WATER—Chance Shower Gives Further Relief From Thirst

By COMM. JOHN RODGERS, U.S.N. Commander Seaplane PN-9 No. 1

HONOLULU, Sept. 11.—For the benefit of the interested public I desire to make at this time a definite statement of fact in regard to the voyage of the PN-9 No. 1 from San Francisco to Nawiliwili. Other statements heretofore published by the press are unauthorized by me.

The PN-9 No. 1 and No. 3 left San Francisco approximately at the same time on August 31. No. 3 leading by about twenty minutes. The PN-9 No. 3 was not sighted by No. 1 after departure. Plane PN-9 No. 1 proceeded as per instructions sailing on a straight course to Kahului.

Guide Ships Easily Found

The wind out of San Francisco was very light from the northwest, gradually backing to the north. The navigation was done entirely by dead reckoning, no attention being paid to radio bearings. We flew between two and four hundred feet below the clouds during the night, the sky being thickly overcast.

All destroyers were picked up as expected at a distance easily visible from the PN-9, while at the same time the plane was easily visible from the destroyers.

Favorable Winds Missing

The engines worked perfectly, and the weather conditions were about other trouble. The wind changed to northeast, as expected, about 400 miles from San Francisco, but was much lighter than had been hoped for. In the morning it became evident that the gasoline supply was running short, and it would be doubtful if we could reach Kahului, where we were expected, before the gasoline was exhausted.

About noon we decided that our gasoline supply would carry us about midway between the Apooohook and the Tanager, respectively the next to the last and the last station ship. I Continued on Page 5

Gangs Believed Running Liquor In Co-operation

Seattle Ring Believed Connected With Blaine Smugglers—Arrested Men to Be Tried Separately

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Sept. 11.—Possibility that the Seattle rum-runners, three of whose alleged members, headed by C. E. Moby, are under arrest here, are linked with the gang at Blaine that has been smuggling the stuff across the border, became apparent today.

Moby today was visited in jail here by L. E. Gillian, of Seattle, one of those arrested early in the week in the Blaine gang roundup which resulted in the resignation of Immigration Inspector H. E. Allen, and accusations that other immigration as well as customs agents were in league with the border rum smugglers.

Sheriff A. L. Callahan, however, is taking the position that the gangs are separate. They will be tried separately, he said today. Gillian is out on bail following his arrest.

She had nothing to say during his campaign but stated that at home she lost no arguments.

German Expert Renews Challenge

Capt. Anton Heinen Insists Shenandoah Catastrophe Caused by Alterations

LAKEHURST, N.J., Sept. 11.—Reiterating his assertion that the reduction of the safety valve system from eighteen to eight valves was the cause of the disaster which overtook the dirigible Shenandoah, Captain Anton Heinen, German dirigible expert, in a telegram to Secretary of the Navy Wilbur, made public today, challenged the "possibility of any truthfully convincing testimony that the gas bags were intact when the ship broke up." Captain Heinen's telegram was an answer to a statement issued by the secretary of the navy, in which he said it was manifest that the accident to the ship was in no wise due to the change in the valves, that the gas bags did not explode and that the Shenandoah struck a small, unanticipated tornado or line squall which could not avoid.

Slum Populace Fights to Keep Old Dwellings

London Proposal to Raze Limehouse Buildings as Unsanitary Opposed by Tenants and Owners

LONDON, Sept. 11.—Tenants of Limehouse dwellings, which the Stepney Borough Council is seeking to have destroyed as being an unsanitary area, again crowded the town hall today when the Ministry of Health inspector resumed his inquiry into the condition of the houses after personally visiting the district.

Owners of the houses and real estate agents testified in opposition to the council's scheme.

To a real estate agent who stated the opinion that there was nothing dangerous to health in the area, the town clerk said, "You call an infantile death rate of 161 per thousand in this area, compared with seventy-four per thousand for the whole of the borough of Stepney, evidence of a health area?"

The witness replied that he regretted that he was unable to express an opinion on the subject, but said there must be reasons other than the houses.

After a number of owners and tenants had testified and described the houses as sound, habitable and healthy, a house agent of Stepney evoked cheers from a part of the public when he declared that the borough council was responsible for overcrowding in the dwellings and asserted that statistics affecting respiratory diseases in the infirmary area had shown an improvement in the last four years, while the statistics for the whole borough indicated that these diseases were on the increase.

After a sharp passage with the town clerk the witness asserted that every house in the infirmary area was fit for human habitation and told the Ministry of Health inspector: "I don't romance, I am not the town clerk."

The inquiry was adjourned.

Resume Use of Yukon Landline

Inadequacy of Wireless Service Compels Return to Old Telegraphic Wire

OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—The Citizen this evening says:

"Owing to the inadequacy of the wireless telegraphic service to the Yukon territory, the land lines of the Government telegraph from Hazelton, B.C., to Dawson, Yukon, have been resumed. Parliamentary pressure caused them to be abandoned in favor of the wireless system from Edmonton to Dawson, but a trial showed that communication was very intermittent. The Dawson News threatened to cease publication during the summer for lack of news from outside the territory. The telegraph line now being re-established was for twenty-six years the only link between the Yukon gold fields and civilization. It has not been definitely established just why the wireless cannot operate properly, but it is presumed to be due to the effect of the midnight sun upon atmospheric conditions.

"What has happened justified the forecast of the Government telegraph branch when the land lines of the territory were replaced by wireless."

Lucy Dalton, All Dressed Up, Receives Visit From C.P.R. President at Toronto

TORONTO, Sept. 11.—Lucy Dalton was all dolled up yesterday in anticipation of a visit from E. W. Healey, president of the C.P.R.

There were secret features about the call that was made. Lucy's cylinders are fifteen by twenty-five and her boiler carried 140 pounds pressure to the square inch.

Lucy, as every visitor to the exhibition knows, is merely one of the first locomotives to be operated over Canadian Pacific lines, but as this was transportation day and she played such a great part in the early transportation history of Canada, Miss Dalton felt rather important.

Sharing honor with her and pride were the veterans, Alex. Gillie and Breman, who both met again "the big chief."

Coy Ghost Wants to Be Kissed; Makes Hit With Spiritualists

Paris Congress Hears of Amorous Phantom—Osculates With Friends But Rebuffs Suspicious—Flowers Seen to Bow on Mention of Dead Man's Name

PARIS, Sept. 11.—Madeline, an amorous apparition, has made a decided hit with foreign delegates attending the international spiritualist congress. She is a kisser par excellence and she believes in reciprocal returns.

It is asserted by spiritualists that Madeline is the materialization of an eighteen-year-old French girl who died in 1886. Alexander Thibault, a French delegate to the congress, is responsible for the ghost's appearance. Much was heard of Madeline at a spirit seance given last night by the Duchesse of Hamilton, which was attended by the foreign delegates.

M. Thibault asserted that Madeline is fond of kissing M. Costa, of the Portuguese delegation, on the cheek, and then waiting to be kissed in return. It was also reported whether M. Costa complies. This coy phantom also kisses M. Thibault, but she rebuffs the director of a Paris theatre who tried to grasp her arm, thinking her a fake.

Can Play the Piano

The spirit Madeline is summoned by means of red lights and phosphorescent screens which are said to go sailing around the room when she is appearing. Usually she remains with M. Thibault for several hours. Madeline can play the piano and thrice has stood in a strong light. It is asserted that shortly it will be possible to photograph her.

M. Thibault said Madeline's medium is a rough country caveman with thick moustache which does not bristle when Madeline kisses him.

The seance in reality was an experience meeting at which those present were invited to recount personal meetings with the supernatural. The Duchesse of Hamilton, who specializes in healing, told of her experience with a patient when her curative force flowed so strongly from her that it stopped the patient's watch as though an electric shock had reached it.

"Call Me Teddy," Says King

Among the stories related was one of the late King Edward. Summoned once at a seance, the relator of the story said, Edward exclaimed: "There are no kings here, call me Teddy."

A friend of the late W. T. Stead

related how after his death, friends continued to meet him. They always left Mr. Stead's chair vacant and it used to move and lift itself up of its own accord. Once they put a heavy flowerpot containing daisies on the seat to keep the chair from moving. Each blossom was seen to make a bow when Mr. Stead's name was mentioned.

Reopening of Mill Encourages Tofino

Interesting Announcement Made Concerning Resumption at Mosquito Harbor

An interesting announcement concerning West Coast development was made a few days ago in connection with the visit to Tofino of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce members, when it was stated that the big lumber mill at Mosquito Harbor was resuming operations after suspending activities for nearly sixteen years.

Mosquito Harbor is in Clayquot Sound and about twelve miles east of Tofino. Seventeen years ago a big sawmill, which employed five hundred men, opened up. An elaborate plant was installed, and camps and buildings for the housing of machinery and offices were quite an important looking settlement. Some hitch in the operations occurred little more than a year after the mill began to work and the whole plant has been lying idle ever since.

Just recently, however, the whole district has been greatly cheered by the signs of renewed activities. A splendid new mill is already in course of construction, the directors, McEwan Brothers, of Seattle, having decided to discard the old machinery and put in new up-to-date equipment. A dozen or more men are already working on the foundations of the concern, which will probably commence operations within the next two or three months at latest.

The company is owned by New York and Seattle capital, McKwan Brothers, being the principal representatives. They have vast timber resources available on their big holdings on the West Coast, as they own the whole of Western Island, and in addition have big areas around Kennedy Lake, Deer Creek, and elsewhere under their control. It is understood that the mill will employ at least five hundred men.

Report Says Taxes Are Inequitable

Vancouver Associated Property Owners Willing to Help in Rectifying Trouble

Taxation in this province especially from the standpoint of its incidence has been referred to the Vancouver Associated Property Owners of Vancouver who have forwarded to the local Chamber of Commerce the results of the conference that was recently held in the City of Vancouver to consider the subject. Action with respect to this report was deferred at the meeting of the directors of the Chamber yesterday in view of the fact that the members had not yet had the opportunity to read the report.

In brief the report sets out that levy for income tax in the province is inequitable, that the personal property tax is likewise open to objection; and the succession duties constitute a tax upon capital taking out of use money that should be used in the province. The suggestion is put forward that the organization will be ready to co-operate with the Minister of Finance in devising other ways of raising the necessary taxes following the adoption of the principles referred to.

The local Chamber will have copies of the resolutions, and the report thereon distributed among the members and the matter will be considered at a later meeting.

Further Assurance That Second Elevator Will Be Built Here

The second grain elevator for the city is assured, according to the statement made by Mr. R. W. Mayhew at the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. Mr. Mayhew said that he had traveled from Calgary to the Coast with Mr. Valentine Quinn, who is promoting the scheme, and he had assured him that there was no doubt that he would construct the elevator here.

One of the best elevators on the West Coast, Mr. Quinn assured him, was to be built by his company at New Westminster. There was no doubt, he stated to Mr. Mayhew, that the half-million-dollar one would also be erected at Ogden Point.

MONTREAL, Sept. 11.—Peculiar by half an hour of semi-darkness a rain and electrical storm which almost amounted to a cloudburst descended on Montreal this afternoon. Trees were uprooted, one of them, in the heart of the city, blocking one of the main street car routes, streets ran water down deep and a solid sheet of water drove along the streets on a high wind. City Manager System to Be Discussed Here

Union of B.C. Municipalities Places Important Question on Agenda at Convention Here on Sept. 22 and 23

Nanaimo Has Fine Report

The city manager question promises to be one of the chief issues to be presented to the Union of British Columbia Municipalities at its annual convention to be held here on Tuesday week.

While the question has been before the municipalities in a desultory way for some years, the attention of the municipal bodies has recently been focused by the circular letter of the Inspector of Municipalities to the various councils. The movement for legislation to this end has been sponsored by the Property Owners' Association of Vancouver, which has desired support to a movement to have special legislation passed which would enable municipalities desirous of having city managers, to adopt the system.

Growth of Use

At present there are fourteen municipalities in Canada where such a system is in vogue. It is said also there are nearly 300 authorities in the United States which have this system.

Mr. Baird, in his letter, points to the necessity of giving security of tenure to a city manager in adopting unpopular courses. Such a problem has just recently caused trouble in an inland city of this province.

Nanaimo's Report

One of the best reports on this question has been made to the Nanaimo council by its legislative committee, in which the committee members say:

"A city is the largest corporation in which its citizens are commonly interested, and fixed responsibility and businesslike management are essential to its proper and profitable conduct. It means the institution of one government, and not many, with an experienced expert at the head to whom every taxpayer may go direct for information or to make complaint and to whom has been given the power to execute the policy established by the combined judgment of the council. "Being an ideal business form of government it carries out all the sound, well-established principles that govern private business, so that under it there can be no 'jamming the buck,' because there is no one to pass it to, thus effectively alienating that favorite pastime so prevalent under other forms of government; in short, it stands for co-ordination of all civic services, an equitable and satisfying division of legislative and administrative duties as compared with the present system of committee government with its inevitable jumble and confusion of duties and, in our opinion, is the only way to secure the best results for the taxpayer, to establish efficiency and save money, while securing quicker action on projects, a greater equality among all citizens as regards civic affairs, that is, elimination of the so-called 'pull' as well as 'politics.'"

Quebec Is Praised as Bulwark Against Reds

STONEY, Australia, Sept. 11.—John Bassett, of the Montreal Gazette, one of the delegates to the Imperial Press conference at Melbourne, today paid a striking tribute to the influence of the Roman Catholic Church in the province of Quebec. "Quebec is one of the greatest bulwarks against Bolshevism within the British Empire," he said. "The influence of the press, who have created by good counsel, a remarkable spirit of comradeship between employers and employees." Although he was himself a non-Catholic, Mr. Bassett praised the tolerant attitude of the Catholic majority of Quebec province.

Dublin, Ont.—"I was weak and irregular with pains and headaches, and could not sleep nights. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by reading the letters in the newspapers and tried it. It became a want to get better. I have got good results from it and I feel a lot stronger and am not troubled with such bad headaches as I used to be and am more regular. I am gaining in weight all the time and I tell my friends what kind of medicine I am taking. You may use my letter as a help to others."—Mrs. JAMES RACHO, Box 12, Dublin, Ontario.

Airplane Prospectors in Northern B.C. Return From Summer's Work

PRINCE RUPERT, Sept. 11.—After spending the summer in heading British Columbia's first airplane prospecting expedition, Colonel J. Scott Williams, of Montreal, hopped off here this morning for Vancouver. The machine, which is the property of the Laurentide Air Service, will be dismantled at Vancouver and shipped to its base at Three Rivers, Que.

The plane left Digby Island Station at 10 o'clock and Colonel Williams said that he expected to make the flight down the coast in approximately five hours, allowing for a brief stop at Alert Bay.

Those aboard the plane besides Colonel Williams acting as pilot were J. Caldwell, mechanic; David Thompson, pioneer merchant of Prince Rupert, and Douglas Stark, son of the member of the Federal Parliament for Skeena constituency.

Local Man Is Forum Leader

Mr. F. A. Graham Elected B.C. Director of People's Forum Speakers' Bureau

Mr. F. A. Graham, well-known local labor man, has been elected to the directorate of the People's Forum Speakers' Bureau, a national organization formed to disseminate economic and sociological information, according to advices received here yesterday.

The other British Columbia member of the directorate is Dr. Lyle Telford, of Vancouver.

The bureau, formed in June, 1923, last year sent nine speakers on tours of Canadian cities. They addressed an aggregate audience of 30,000 people at various phases of the labor movement.

This season's list of speakers, most of whom Victorians will have the opportunity of hearing, includes Professor Scott Nearing; Dr. Anna Louise Strong; Mr. Carl D. Thompson, general secretary of the Public Ownership League of America; Messrs. Skene McKay and Wilfred Wellock, two Old Country Labor men bearing messages to Canadians from the British party; Mr. W. Moriarty, of Toronto; Mrs. Rose Henderson, of W. Ivens and Mr. A. E. Smith, all three of whom are well known in Western Canadian labor circles.

The forum proposes to hold a series of meetings this year to deal with the proposal to form Labor colleges in Canada.

Sidney Starts Federal Fight

Liberal Candidate in Nanaimo Riding Introduced in Opening Meeting

The recent order of the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada granting Western Canada low freight rates on westbound grain to balance with rates given eastbound wheat, the terms of the Crow's Nest Pass agreement, occupied the premier position in speeches made at the introductory meeting of Mr. J. G. Booth, Liberal candidate in the Federal riding of Nanaimo, held last night at the Victoria Hotel, when the Liberal convention last Spring with Mr. Booth, was chairman.

Speakers at the meeting were Mr. N. W. Whittaker, of Victoria, the candidate, Mr. Booth; Mr. M. B. Jackson, K.C., and Mr. Henry C. Hall, K.C., of Victoria; Mrs. Campbell, president of the Women's Liberal Association, of Esquimalt; Mr. J. G. Turken, provincial organizer for the Liberal Party; and Mr. Alex. McDonald, newly elected president of the Islands Liberal Association.

Mr. M. B. Jackson, K.C., chairman of the Provincial Co-ordination Board, was the principal speaker. He dealt at some length with the recent order of the Railway Board equalizing freight rates and gave a brief outline of the platform of the Liberal Party—further improvement of freight rates, improvement of transportation in order to help Western Canada producers, and the enactment of a strong immigration policy. He believed, he said, that the Mackenzie King Government could, by continuance of its policy, accomplish more for the people of Canada as a whole, than could a Conservative Government under the leadership of Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen.

Mr. Booth, the Liberal candidate for Nanaimo, who will oppose the return of Mr. Dick, the sitting Conservative member, spoke but a few minutes, but he promised that at a future occasion he would deal more fully with the policy of the Liberal Government, and his own candidature.

Empire Press Party Visits Sheep Station

SYDNEY, Australia, Sept. 11.—The Empire Press Union delegates continued their instructive tour yesterday and visited the sheep station at Kerarbury, where they saw the whole process of shearing, grading and packing done.

The delegates were afterward entertained to luncheon by the Chamber of Commerce. C. F. Crandall, of Montreal, Canadian secretary to the Empire Press Union, replying to a toast to the visitors, urged the need of better understanding by the various units of the Empire of each other's troubles and difficulties. While Canada and Australia would always play for their own hands, they were always open to co-operate in the broader Empire issues.

Husband and Wife Found Dead in Residence

OAKLAND, Sept. 11.—At noon today Jean Salmon, four-year-old boy, of Pinole, walked into the home of a neighbor, Mrs. George Catiell, with the announcement: "My father and mother are dead, and I am going to live with you now." Mrs. Catiell notified the police, who went to the Salmon home and found both parents, Benj. Salmon, an oil worker, and Charlotte Salmon, shot to death. Mrs. Salmon had recently started divorce proceedings against her husband, and it is presumed by the police that he shot her and then himself. The couple had seven children, all living.

WEST COAST TRADE

One result of the visit of the Chamber of Commerce delegates to the different points on the West Coast of Vancouver Island will, it is hoped, be to give an impetus to trade to and from this port to those points. At present, as we pointed out before, the percentage of trade is altogether in favor of Vancouver. This might be expected in the matter of south-bound freight and it is particularly pronounced in that regard. In supplying the needs of the residents and firms of the West Coast Victoria is in a position to compete on better than equal terms with Vancouver. The following figures show the loading points and destinations, in tons, on three trips of the S.S. Princess Maquinna during the month of August last:

Northbound		Southbound
Vancouver	1903 1/2	Victoria	343 1/2
234 1/2	83 1/2	234 1/2	44
262 1/2	126 1/2	234 1/2	69 1/2
		234 1/2

The fact that the trade of the West Coast of Vancouver Island goes mostly through Vancouver is due to the majority of the interests at West Coast points having their headquarters or agencies in the Mainland city, and also because Vancouver has rail-head advantages which Victoria does not enjoy. With the exception of the packing plant at Clayoquot there are hardly any Victoria investments on the West side of the Island. Vancouver is represented by such interests as the Whalen Pulp and Paper Company, the Nootka Packing Company, the Wallace Fisheries at Killisnoak, and Goss-Miller at San Mateo. These firms at present carry on their trade through Vancouver, but there is a tendency, and one that should be encouraged, among the small general stores of the West Coast to show a preference for Victoria in obtaining their supplies of groceries, hardware, clothing, etc.

Those who have made some investigation of the subject admit that Victoria would have even a heavier percentage of the West coast trade were it not for the fact that on the Alberni Canal there are several Oriental-controlled canneries which purchase entirely from Oriental wholesale houses in Vancouver. The Mainland city takes practically the whole of the business from Sarita Bay, Rutherford Bay, Ecoole, Green Cove and Davis Island. With the exception of Davis Island where there is a white man's enterprise, nearly all the other places employ Japanese alone.

The point we want to make is that Victoria can secure even a greater trade than she enjoys at present, and it should be possible, for economic reasons, to persuade the Vancouver-controlled interests that they should purchase, to some extent at least, in Victoria. This city can compete and do so successfully with Vancouver for the West Coast trade. Victoria is nearer to the market. The saving in freight amounts to between 75 cents and $1 per ton, which is an important consideration to both the middleman and the consumer. The Chamber of Commerce, through its connections with the business community here, should be able to foster this trade by encouraging the preference already shown by the small storekeepers and endeavoring to get the larger industrial interests to avail themselves of the lower freight rate which prevails out of this port.

AGE LIMIT FOR SENATORS

Driven by the criticism of Mr. Meighen to declare some specific items of policy in his proposed reforms of the Senate, Mr. Mackenzie King expresses the opinion that "he does not think" Senators should be appointed for life. What he carefully refrains from saying is what he "thinks" the age limit should be. The fact is that the Prime Minister is blurring, for if he were not he would speak about a method of reform which would make the Second Chamber wholly subservient to the House of Commons, and this he dare not do for party political reasons.

It would be an exceedingly dangerous principle to establish to put an age limit on Senators. Had Mr. Mackenzie King said that Senators, for instance, should be appointed for five or ten-year terms instead of for life, and that at the end of such terms they would be eligible for re-appointment, then, indeed, he would have offered a suggestion that could be regarded as constructive. The age limit idea, however, opens up the problem of who could be the judge of different men's capabilities according to their time of life. In Britain the Government do not think of measuring a man's capabilities to serve his country by virtue of the age he enjoys. Lord Balfour is 77 years old, Mr. Asquith, the Liberal leader, is 73. In France, M. Clemenceau was Prime Minister at the age of 78, and, to come closer home to Mr. King's own party, Mr. Fielding was Minister of Finance in the Liberal Government at the age of 76. Sir George Foster at 78 is probably as virile as he ever was, as those who heard him in his recent speeches here can testify.

In all walks of life men of an advanced age continue to do excellent work. Mr. Thomas A. Edison is now 79 and he has not exhausted his inventive genius. Marshall Foch is 74, yet he is still called upon all the time in connection with France's military problems. The Earl of Meath, one of the most active philanthropists of the day, is 84, and the Archbishop of Canterbury is 77. At the age of 94 the Earl of Halsbury spoke in the House of Lords against women being allowed to become solicitors, and numerous cases might be cited of the retention of full mental powers at an advanced age in life. Mr. Mackenzie King's proposal for an age limit for Senators might have the effect if put into practice of debarring the most brilliant men in the country from public service. The saving grace, however, is that he has mentioned no age limit, nor is he likely to go to that extreme.

HONESTY

Will it always remain a debatable question—whether "Honesty is the best policy?" So much depends upon the view one takes of life. Moralists affirm that to degrade it into a question of policy is to take all the merit out of honesty. If the object is simply to get on in life, observation shows that plenty of men get position and wealth, and political preferment by not running what is called honesty into the ground. Almost everyone admits that a reputation for honesty is useful, and everybody knows that it is often acquired by a long-headed shrewdness in speech and action.

Legal honesty is tolerably common, for it is not true that the majority of people are kept out of jail owing to the imperfections of courts and the difficulty of conviction. There is a great respect for law, and in private life an innate or cultivated sense of justice and fair dealing. We all know honest men, and we speak of them as honest with emphasis, showing that we regard it as a kind of distinction to be simply honest. A man can easily be conspicuous by being pretty honest. We do not necessarily choose such men for office—indeed, indeed, become a sort of necking proverb that such a man is too honest to go through the necessary steps to commend himself to the suffrages of the majority—but we like to have them in the community, for they impart a sort of stability to our shifting affairs. If what a man wants in this world is peace of mind, and if he enjoys having the absolute confidence of those who know him intimately—if, as the slang is, that is his life in life—why, entire honesty is good policy.

The world has only a qualified admiration for a man who cheats in the sale of a horse, or makes money by selling bad flour branded as good, and we feel that a righteous disgust for a fellow who filches a ham out of the smoke-house. There is a common consensus of opinion that honesty should be the policy of those fellows, but do we have the same feeling toward a man who corners wheat on a large scale and makes such a rise in prices that the poor man, who may be pinched for something to eat, thinks himself justified in taking the ham? We have a contempt for the man who sells his vote. If, however, a man buys a great many such votes, or pays for the running of the machinery that buys them, and gets himself elected to the Legislature, we make the same distinction as we do between other retail and wholesale operations.

"Honesty is the best policy" is maintained by the majority to be a sound maxim, and in line with the teachings of the New Testament, Sober and Franklin. The difficulty is in getting that view adopted and practised by the rest of the world who hold a different opinion. One who is honest in the ordinary sense acts, or is always disposed to act, with careful regard for the rights of others, especially in matters of business or property. One who is honest in the highest and fullest sense is scrupulously careful to adhere to all known truth and right, even in thought. Finally, summed up, Honesty and Honor are Love's fountain-head—the combined virtues that make the world go round. Honor is the dominating force. This brings to mind that couplet of Lovelace: "I could not love thee, dear, so much, Loved I not honor more."

Mr. Charles Stewart, the Minister of the Interior, predicts that the Liberals will win eight seats in British Columbia in the approaching Federal election. It is true he qualifies this by saying, "of course you never can tell what the public will do in these days." In that case then why induce in specific predictions and why is Mr. Stewart the prophet because he can know little of political sentiment in this Province?

Mr. Mackenzie King appears to have lost his temper in replying to Mr. Meighen's criticism of his lack of policies affecting railway and Senate reform. The Prime Minister should remember what Sir Thomas Brown said to the effect that, "In all disputes, so much as there is of passion, so much there is of nothing to the purpose."

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

There appears to be something wrong with the educational system of the United States. For that matter the educational authorities of most of the nations of the world have been trying for a long time to evolve more or less perfect educational systems, and we are told that there is still some room for improvement in all educational systems.

However, we are not considering the educational system of the United States. We are considering some of the products of that system of education. After considering the case of the latest product of the schools of the United States to achieve notoriety, we venture to say that some of the young men of the United States are being educated at the wrong kind of institutions.

The culture of the academics was wasted upon such young men as Noel, as it was thrown away upon such young fellows as Loeb and his accessory in a most atrocious crime. The latent talents of such people could doubtless have been developed properly if the processes of development had been undertaken at the slaughter-houses of the stockyards of Chicago or of Kansas City.

It is somewhat curious to note the mental effects produced upon certain young men by the prescribed courses of study in the schools of the United States. In the case of the latest infant phenomenon to develop the instincts of the most cruel and the most blood-thirsty beasts of the jungle, we are told to be careful lest peradventure you may be guilty of injustice. The poor young fellow did not know what he was doing when he slaughtered a little child and murdered a person of mature years. He was suffering from asphyxia. More learning was crammed into his head than his brain could absorb or assimilate, and he became mad. Therefore Noel is more to be pitied than blamed.

If the case ever reaches the courts—and it is too sensational a case not to reach the courts—learned alienists or psychiatrists will testify that Noel is more to be pitied than blamed, counsel with voices broken by emotion will declare that Noel is more to be pitied than blamed, the judge will express some doubt as to whether Noel is more to be pitied than blamed, and the jury, after long deliberation, will announce that Noel is more to be pitied than blamed. Then the irresponsible victim of psychosis, or asphyxia, or something with a name signifying nothing, will be ordered into seclusion until the devil of which he is possessed shall be exorcised by gentle treatment.

In the meantime the newspapers of the United States will print all the details of the Noel case in their biggest and blackest type. The contents of the papers will be greedily devoured. Circulations will increase by leaps and bounds. Doubtless some other young fellows who are developing symptoms of asphyxia or psychosis will read all the particulars of the terrible crime. They will be fascinated by what they read. Their super-heated brains and their throbbing hearts will crave for such another sensation. We are told that the case of Noel & the logical result of the case of Leopold and Loeb. More links will be forged and added to that chain of crime.

Soldiers representing Canada, the United States, Great Britain, France, Spain, Germany and Italy are "carrying" the war into Africa and into Asia. Of course someone knows what the African war is about. We confess we do not know with certainty what that war is about; but we surmise that the Moors are determined to drive the French, the Italians and the Spaniards out of Northern Africa. Therefore the war is a conflict of races. People whose skins are of different colors cannot dwell together in unity. Racial antagonisms will give the League of Nations something to do in the future unless the spirit of peace develops a set of tremendous wings and broods over the entire world.

None of the great nations except France, Spain and Italy are officially at war with the Moors of Northern Africa. The soldiers of the other nations have volunteered. Thousands of the fighting men of Germany are assisting their late enemies the French in their battles against the Rifians. Like the Canadians, the British and the Americans, they have gone to the Dark Continent in quest of adventures. War under modern conditions and with modern instruments has an irresistible fascination for them. The Moors will be subdued temporarily, but the whites have made the war a war of races, and the animosities engendered will smoulder and kindle the fuel of other wars.

There is something very impressive in the judgments of a Mainland contemporary. When the opinions of the future journal in question are printed in bold type, the fact is obvious that nothing more can be said on the subjects under discussion. A few months ago the great Continent of America was pronounced one economic unit, and all other economic forces were challenged to attempt to tamper with that single economic unit. Another alliance has been effected by the same arbitrary authority. The whole of North America has been declared one unit. "The future story of North America's prowess in the air is being written right now in Washington."

We are somewhat sceptical on this continental unity business. The United States is still one distinct economic unit, and Canada is another distinct economic unit. The Continent of America is not by any means a single unit, and we doubt whether it ever will become a single air unit. The progress of aviation in Canada does not depend upon the progress of aviation in the United States. The science of aerial navigation has made more progress in Europe than it has made in the United States. The future of North America's prowess in the air does not depend upon what "is being written right now in Washington."

Dry Law Enforcement

Sir,—Under date of July 5 you print a story under the caption, "The United States Dry Squad Now Numbers 250,000 Men." The reading of it would lead one to believe that there are 250,000 men in the United States whose sole duty it is to enforce the prohibition law. As a matter of fact, whether or not you intended to convey that impression, your statements are misleading. You might as well have said that there are 250,000 men in the United States whose duty it is to enforce the speed law, the law against stealing and the law against counterfeiting.

The police, who you say number 100,000, were on the job when we had a riot. They are still on the job and will be on the job if we bring back our saloons. The fact is, enforcement of prohibition has necessitated the employment of only a very few extra officers. Nobody will deny that enforcement needs improvement. You say that Senator Couzens is one who makes the declaration that "the evidence all points to the breakdown of the present enforcement system." Senator King did not say so, neither did any because Senator Couzens is and always has been "wet."

You should be careful, it seems to me, not to make any misleading tendencies. That has always been the duty of a newspaperman as I have understood it and I have been a newspaperman all my life.

Oak Bay Water Rights

Sir,—A letter by Mr. Herbert Carmichael in your issue of the 9th inst. calls attention to legislation which he says is being introduced in the House of Commons. Mr. Carmichael for bringing it to notice, as it awaits in informing the public interested.

The legislation quoted apparently provides for a supply of water to Oak Bay by Victoria, but seemingly does not give Oak Bay control of, or property right in the hands and works of Victoria.

Y.M.C.A. Bids Officer Adieu

Large Gathering Attends Farewell Reception in Honor of Mr. and Mrs. Cross

About 150 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Cross, including a large representation from the Kiwanis Club and Ladies' Auxiliary to the Y.M.C.A., gathered at the Y.M.C.A. last night to bid them good-bye and best wishes for success in their new sphere of activities. Dr. M. W. Thomas, on behalf of the Board of Directors of the local Association, presented Mr. Cross with a purse of gold as a token of its appreciation of his invaluable services during his stay here. Mrs. Cross was presented by Mrs. McLaurin, with a beautiful lamp shade from the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Association.

Mr. Cross, who has been connected with the Y.M.C.A. for the last six years, will leave on Monday to take on the general secretary's position at the Westmount branch of the Association. He has been closely associated with the Kiwanis Club during his stay here and was very active in the boys' work of this local Association. His departure will be a great loss to the Y.M.C.A. and the local Association.

Dr. Thomas, president of the local Association, in presenting Mr. Cross with the purse, spoke of the splendid work which Mr. Cross had achieved as boys' and general secretary. The Board, he stated, was exceedingly sorry to lose his services and would look forward to the day of his return. Mr. Cross made a suitable reply. Short speeches of appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. Cross were voiced by Mrs. McLaurin, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Y.M.C.A.; Mr. Bishop, on behalf of the Y.W.C.A.; Mr. J. L. Heckwith, for the Kiwanis Club; Mrs. E. D. Elsworth, for the directors of the Y.M.C.A.; and Rev. M. D. McKee, Mr. B. Gale and Dr. MacLaurin. Mr. Thomas Kelway gave two words during the evening, and at the close refreshments were served.

THY LOVE FOR ME

Glamour of mist 'neath the setting sun,
Concealing power when strength is breaking,
Staying of life when task is straining,
Effluence of courage to do and to dare,
Unspoken words of holiest prayer,
The heart's inmost shrine where the spirit finds rest:
All these art thou to me, by thy love blest.

No Plebiscite Until January

Ratepayers of Saanich Will Not Vote on Health Centre Before Annual Elections

Saanich ratepayers will have to wait until the annual municipal elections in January before they will have the opportunity of expressing their opinions concerning what the future of the Saanich War Memorial Health Centre will be.

Reverend Robert Macdonald, of Saanich, said yesterday that there is no power vested in the Municipal Council for the holding of a plebiscite at any other time than at the annual elections, save in the event of a petition, signed by at least one-fifth of the voters of Saanich, is presented to the Council.

"I personally regret that examination of the Municipal Act shows this condition to exist, as I am afraid that such a petition is impracticable and will not be organized. It is in pity that this measure cannot be kept free from the municipal election platform," the Reeve declared.

"Submission of the form of a money by-law, was suggested to me by interested parties. In ordinary circumstances, a referendum of a money vote to a referendum on management methods, would be a practical method of avoiding the necessity for the preliminary petition. In the case of the Health Centre this method is not effective. Under the authority of the original Health Centre By-law the Council has extremely wide spending powers, and could, if it so desired, appropriate thousands of dollars yearly for the Centre, without taking a vote."

Maquinna Skipper Goes On Holiday to Banff

When she sailed for the West Coast last night at eleven o'clock, the C.P.R. steamship Princess Maquinna was minus her regular skipper, Captain E. Inquiries Are Made for Plant

Premises on Alberni Canal May Be Reopened—West Coast Operations Revive

Synchronizing with the great interest taken in the West Coast and the development of its industries is the announcement that inquiries have been made to reopen a dormant packing plant on the Alberni Canal. While the details are not yet available, it is assumed that the success of the plan to plant oil plants on the West Coast rendered possible by the lifting of the ban on plantations for manufacturing oil and meal is the inducement. It is understood that three plants are now operating, each employing about thirty-five men.

This issue of The Colonist also contains announcement of two industries resuming operation, one the lumber mill at Mousquit Inlet, and the other the Alberni Canal shingle mill being reconditioned by the firm of Little Brothers.

The figures for the lumber production on the island for the week ending Wednesday show a steady improvement on the previous week, and on the corresponding week of 1924.

Coal output on the island is now showing an improved production, and with the advent of Winter it is expected that the output will be improved. It has taken some time for the colliers to become adjusted to the wages revision which caused some disorganization early this summer.

Memorial Avenue Funds Are Sought

Victoria and Saanich will each be asked to contribute sums of $32,475 to the Memorial Avenue funds, according to a decision of the Victoria-Rainich Beaches and Parks Committee yesterday afternoon.

The Memorial Avenue committee of the Chamber of Commerce had collected $32,475 by means of a tag day recently, the beaches and parks body was informed in a letter from the chamber.

The letter expressed regret that a larger sum had not been forthcoming. Last year, the letter pointed out, the taggers had harvested $37,145.

The work of improving and extending the tree scheme along the avenue will be undertaken when Victoria and Saanich have come forward with their contributions.

Membership on Unity Body Here Is Now Defined

Only Organizations Which Support Haig Unity Plan to Be Represented on Local Committee

Winnipeg Meeting Urged

The Provisional Unity Committee for Victoria and District, in session last night in the library of the Veterans of France quarters, decided that commencing October 1, the said committee would consist of representatives of such ex-service men's organizations as have committed themselves in favor of Field Marshal Haig's scheme of unity, and also of representatives of unaffiliated men, and as other organizations declare themselves in support of the proposal, they will automatically secure representation on the committee.

The first question discussed by the unity committee at last night's meeting was the resolution which the local unit of the Army and Navy Veterans passed on Thursday night, and representatives present from that organization were asked to explain the motion declaring the Army and Navy unit opposed to amalgamation.

Explain Unit's Position

Messrs. George Gardiner, Joshua Hinchliffe, M.P.P., and C. P. L. Money outlined the position of the local branch of the Army and Navy Veterans. They stated that the use of the term "amalgamation" in the resolution that the unit had passed, did not refer either to the Dominion or Provincial aspects of unity, but purely to the local aspect, namely, the amalgamation of local ex-service men's organizations into one local unit, which would entail the loss of their local unit identity.

The Army and Navy Veterans' delegates pointed out that no reference had been made at their meeting, on Thursday night, to the possibility that might be taken by the Dominion convention of the organization in Regina, Saskatchewan, towards the end of September in regard to Dominion and Provincial unity of all ex-service men's organizations.

Favor Session at Winnipeg

The committee went on record as being of the opinion that the interests of all ex-service men in Canada would be best served, especially from an economic standpoint, if the proposed convention on unity were held in Winnipeg. Messrs. Gardiner, Hinchliffe, and Money, as had been suggested, the first-named city being a more central and logical point. It also urged that all district unity committees within British Columbia and Alberta request full consideration of this suggestion by the Dominion Provisional Unity Committee.

The secretary was instructed to communicate with Brigadier-General H. F. MacDonald, provisional chairman of the Provincial Unity Committee, British Columbia, requesting information as to how representatives to the Provincial and Dominion Unity Councils were to be chosen.

Nine organizations, including existing ex-service men's bodies, and unaffiliated veterans, were represented by delegates at last night's meeting of the Victoria and District Unity Committee.

Fuelless Seaplane Sails Over Pacific

therefore decided to land at the Aronook, which is a fully-equipped airplane tender.

Gasoline Gives Out

We still had plenty of gasoline to land, re-fuel and take off again for Honolulu. This was in accordance with the prearranged plans to meet the situation with which we were faced on approaching the Aronook. We received radio messages from her, indicating that we were south of her and that on reaching a point where I thought she should be visible and not being able to see her, we changed course to approach on these bearings. It became evident that she would not be found on this course. I started to write a message which would give her some clue to our whereabouts, but just then the gasoline gave out. Both engines were cut out simultaneously and we started to glide from about 800 feet.

Least, Connell, who had the contact, made a beautiful landing in the heavy swell, both engines being dead, having no power. Due to total expenditure of gas, we could not use radio, and were therefore out of communication at this time. I determined our position to be fifty miles north of the Aronook's station. We rigged a radio antenna on the plane and received without much difficulty everything that was in the air.

Plane Sails 50 Miles Daily

We sailed before the wind, endeavoring to work the plane in towards the Hawaiian Islands, here we changed course to make fifty miles a day. We made fifty miles a day, that is an average of two miles an hour, although the plane appeared to be making much better speed. We cut the fabric from the lower wing and rigged a foresail. Weather conditions were moderate, although in the afternoon the seas were high. The plane at all times behaved very well.

After the first day we felt sure that unless the weather changed very much for the worse, we could make Oahu, or, failing that, we would certainly be able to make Kaula, our only concern was a question of water supply. We knew we could get along without food, of which we had small emergency rations. We were depending on a small water still for water. This supplied water, but we still required gasoline as fuel.

Woodwork Used as Fuel

We managed to get the still going on the sixth day by burning wood from the trailing edges of the lower wings. On the seventh day we made a canoe and a half of water in about five hours. The water in the radiators of the engine was undrinkable due to being impregnated with a patent solution to prevent leaks. We managed to make our small original supply of water last for seven days. On the eighth day a heavy rain squall passed over us and we caught up the rain water in the fabric which had been cut from the lower wing. This enabled us to survive, and consequently we were in very good condition when we arrived at Kaula. All during the trip we realized that an extemporized radio sending set would solve our difficulties in a few hours by giving our position to the search ships. We tried rigging one up, but were unable to make one which worked a sufficient distance. The receiver, as I have said, functioned perfectly all the time. We knew just what was going on about us.

Missed by Steamer

Crossing the steamer lane from Honolulu to the Coast, a steamer crossed our bow about five miles ahead in the early morning. Due probably to the fact that the sun was low and directly in the eyes of the observers, we were not seen.

On the seventh day, Connell devised lee boards, which enabled us to "crab" off the wind about 15 degrees, and were of great assistance to us in getting across Kaula Channel. Without them we would not have made Kaula.

We passed Oahu at about forty-five miles distance, the island being clearly visible the afternoon of the eighth day, and headed coast-hauled for Kaula.

Sighted by Submarine

We had reached a point about fifteen miles from Nawiliwili, and were trying to signal that port, when we were sighted by the patrolling submarine ten miles off Nawiliwili, were taken in tow and towed into the harbor, where the whole island population was out to receive us.

The whole exciting part of the whole voyage was getting the plane anchored safely in the harbor of Nawiliwili. Finally we got it well secured in a safe place and went ashore. We were taken care of by the good people of the island, who insisted on treating us invalids, whereas, as a matter of fact, we were in very good shape and perfectly capable of taking care of ourselves.

The outstanding feature of the trip was that there was no failure of material at any time either in the air or the water.

Morale of Crew High

We believe that the PN-9 is a great plane in the air, capable of maintaining itself on the surface of the water in ordinary weather almost indefinitely.

The morale of the crew was high. They were always cheerful and worked with as much energy as if they had been getting a full ration every day.

It should be understood that the flight was planned to be a non-stop flight if favorable winds were found. In event we struck an unfavorable wind it was planned that we should refuel from a station ship along the route and make off for Hawaii.

The only misadventure of the plan was due to our failure to find the Aronook, the ship we had anticipated to refuel from after having passed close above all other station ships en route.

Would Protect Farmers

"The policy of a country must be such that you gather into the country the maximum amount of work for the people to do."

The first tariff which he would raise if he got into power would be the tariff on agricultural products. Mr. Meighen said it was absurd that early fruits, etc., should come into Canada without contributing to the revenue. People who could afford to pay for these early fruits could afford to contribute to the revenue, and he gave these people notice that they would have to do it if he was Prime Minister.

The benefit which, he claimed, the fruit and vegetable production section of Canada would derive from a protective tariff was emphasized by Mr. Meighen.

The Conservative leader argued that a tariff which would keep the early fruits and vegetables of United States growers from invading the Canadian market before Canadian products were ripe for eating, could not but help the Canadian grower. Under present conditions, the high prices, the cream of the Canadian market went to the American growers.

Toronto Visitor Speaks to Council

Mrs. W. Cummings, Delegate to Quinquennial Sessions of International, Talks Here

An exceedingly interesting condensed report of the quinquennial convention of the International Council of Women at Washington, D.C., in the early part of the summer was given by Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, of Toronto, in a special gathering of Victoria Local Council members last evening at the Memorial Hall.

Mrs. Cummings not only very cleverly reviewed the discussions, but she also interpreted the atmosphere of the gathering. Miss Sara Spencer presided, and at the close of the meeting questions were invited and much further interesting information given concerning the big convention.

More than three hundred delegates from all parts of the world had attended the quinquennial. Mrs. Cummings reported. So anxious were the United States National Council for a full representation of all countries that they subscribed toward the expenses of a delegate from any place which was unable to send a representative. While the quinquennial was in progress cablegrams arrived informing them that national councils were being organized in Palestine, China and India.

Three official languages were used at the convention: English, French and German, and despite the fact that practically all the delegates spoke at least a little English, it had been a recognized drawback that all the more important speeches had to be translated into the three official languages.

A great tribute to the form of the council's organization was paid by Mrs. Cummings when she said that it was practically the same as that used by the League of Nations. The council was, in fact, a League of Women. The women's problems of the different countries represented were in a general way identical, and had to do with the adjustment of laws for the protection of women and children.

Canada's high ranking in the international was indicated when it was stated that among the thirty-nine countries represented at the quinquennial this country stood second.

"THE YEAR OF JUBILEE"

MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE

THE year 1925 has figured to a large extent in the public press for many months past. The Roman Catholic Church planned many things for this year, which they celebrate as the Year of Jubilee, including the establishment of the Ecumenical Council. Bible Students have pointed to it as a marked date in contemporary history, spoken of by prophets of old, and as heralding a new order to be established.

There has, however, been much misconception as to just what this will indicate, and the teachings of the I.B.S.A. have many times been distorted and their statements misconstrued as to what they expect at this time. Will it mean the dawn of the Era of Peace? Or will it mean a still greater storm of passion and protest against existing evils? Will it see the Kingdom of Christ completely established, or will great signs and wonders be seen heralding His Second Advent?

Studying Plants

What do you know about the flowers of our gardens or the plants and weeds that cover the earth? Most of you know very little.

Yet a learned body of women think it worth while to spend much time and thought in learning how plants grow. Here are some of the questions they are trying to answer.

Why is it that some flowers turn always their faces to the sun, and others, shutting their eyes in the daytime to the too-fierce rays, open them when the cool dusk descends? Why do some spring straight upwards and others stretch their length along the ground, while others, obedient to some law of growth, curve ever in spiral staircases to where they would be?

Girls' Secretary Is Chief Speaker

Mrs. Willis James, of Calgary, Addresses Meeting of Young Women

Mrs. Willis James, of Calgary, who has held the office of Girls' Secretary of the Dominion Board of the W. A. A. A. for several years, was one of the principal speakers at the well attended Girls' W. A. A. A. meeting held last evening at the Memorial Hall.

With Miss Duncan, Girls' Secretary of Columbia Diocesan Board, there were on the platform Mrs. Belton, diocesan president, who introduced the Dominion president, Mrs. Ferrabee, who was presented with a bouquet of roses by Miss Wilkinson. Mrs. Ferrabee referred to the visit she had made during the afternoon to the Good Hope Mission for Chinese, and of the joy it gave her and other officers of the Board to see the good work that is being done there among children and young people.

Mrs. James, who, on being introduced, was presented by Miss Rattan with a bouquet, congratulated the girls on the progress and growth they had made since her last visit, three years ago, an increase which was largely due to their good secretary, Miss Duncan. She confined her talk to a discussion of the aims and ideals of a girls' branch, and gave her young listeners much wise and helpful counsel, emphasizing the valuable opportunity that the work afforded in character-building and the development of the "teen-age girl." Loyalty, patience, and perseverance, were the three chief characteristics required in all W. A. A. A. work and leaders must strive to attain these.

Cotton Cargo To Go Out on Alabama Maru

O.S.K. Liner Will Take Out Large Shipment of Cotton to Orient When She Sails September 16

Paris Maru Coming From the Far East

When the Osaka Kisen Kaisha liner Alabama Maru sails for the Orient on September 16 she will take out five hundred tons of Alabama cotton, the largest single shipment of this product of the southland to be moved this year. The total shipment comprises 1,000 bales, and will be distributed throughout Japan for manufacturing purposes.

In addition to the cotton, the Alabama Maru will take out large shipments of lumber, wheat, copper and general freight for ports in the Orient. The O.S.K. liner Paris Maru will not call at Victoria this trip, as alterations have not yet been made to her propeller. She will proceed direct to Seattle, where she is due on Tuesday, and Victoria cargo will be transhipped from that port.

Passengers aboard the Paris Maru include Mr. T. I. Iga, managing director of the Osaka Marine Insurance Company, one of the leading marine insurance companies of Japan, and his secretary, Mr. Iga, who will make a business tour of the United States and Europe. Mr. R. Hagino, of the O.S.

K. staff in the Orient, is also on board. He will join the Tacoma staff of that company.

The Paris Maru has seventeen first cabin passengers, many of whom will come to Victoria from Seattle. There are also on board 197 bags of mail, 1,442 bales of raw silk valued at $2,000,000, and 2,335 tons of general freight.

Rum-Running Baron Renews Efforts to Further Activities

LONDON, Sept. 11.—Despite the heavy losses rumored to have been suffered in the last year by those financing contraband liquor shipments to the United States, Sir Frederick Hartwell, rum-running baron, is soliciting financial backing for further activities.

In circulars to the stockholders of his former enterprises, he announces that he has joined up with the Bahamas International Trading Company and will attempt to land liquor cargoes in the United States through that organization if more money is advanced.

The Daily Mail, printing the story today, cautions its readers against too much faith in the enterprise, declaring the subscribers stand a chance of losing their investments, because of the activities of the United States coastguard vessels.

Afternoon Boat Will Revert to Former Sailing

Will Leave for Vancouver at 2:15 o'clock on Monday—Vessel From Vancouver Will Arrive Later

The steamer on the triangular run will revise their times on Monday, reverting to the hours which prevailed prior to the advent of the Princess Kathleen and Princess Marguerite on the route in May. The departure of the day steamer to Vancouver will be deferred to 2:15 o'clock, arriving at 7 p.m. instead of the present hour of 2 o'clock arriving at 6 o'clock. In the same way the day steamer from Vancouver will arrive at 2 o'clock instead of 2:30 o'clock, but the hour of departure for Seattle will not be altered. The period of arrival in Seattle will be the same as prevailed last winter.

The alteration affects only the Princess Kathleen and Marguerite in the day service, the night boats running as throughout the summer. The H. C. Coast Service lays special stress upon the change in the Vancouver day boat, as it is an alteration of time in a service which is particularly well patronized.

A number of changes in the other services of the Coast fleet will be effective later in this month.

Well-Known Shipping Man Passes Away

Mr. Fred Morris Studely, United States Manager for N.Y.K., Dies After Long Illness in Seattle

Was Well Known By Victorians

There passed away last Thursday in Seattle Mr. Fred Morris Studely, sixty-one years old, one of the most widely-known steamship officials on this coast. Mr. Studely was well known to Victorians, being agent on this side of the Pacific for the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, Japan Mail Steamship Company, Ltd.

He died at his home at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon after a long illness. Mr. Studely was born in Concord, N.H., September 9, 1864, and died on the sixty-first anniversary of his birth. He entered railway service in Boston, and later went to Duluth, where he was employed by the Great Northern Railway Company. From Duluth he was transferred to St. Paul, becoming assistant to the president of the Great Northern. In 1898 Mr. Studely came to Seattle to take charge of the marine department of the Great Northern, which was connected with the service of the N.Y.K. and later operated the huge liners Minnema and Yukon in the trans-Pacific trade from Seattle.

In 1910 he became United States manager of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha. He was retained as United States manager and appointed adviser by the N.Y.K. in 1920, acting in the latter capacity until his death. Just previous to his retirement as United States manager Mr. Studely was called to Japan, where the N.Y.K. management presented him with a large sum in recognition of his services with the company.

Mr. Studely is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Everett Penton, of Portland, and two grandchildren. Funeral services will be held in the Chapel of the Bonny-Watson Company at 2 o'clock this afternoon, followed by cremation.

The tug failed to report its arrival to the United States customs officer at Algonac, and the barge, which is not documented by the United States (Government), was dredging in the United States territorial waters.

Mysterious Message Found in Bottle Without Foundation

PARIS, Sept. 11.—Explanation of the mysterious message said to have been contained in a floating bottle picked up by an Italian torpedo boat early this week, stating that George Smythe, Toronto canoeist, who left Rome on August 19 in an attempt to paddle to Leningrad, and a companion, Lieutenant Brandt, were stranded on an island near Cape Corso, off Corsica, and were wounded and starving, has not yet been forthcoming. Brandt, however, was found floating in the sea, but no message from him was without foundation. No reason for this belief is given, however.

West Coast Report Will Come Up Later

Suggestion Made to Present it at Annual Meeting of Chamber of Commerce

The report of the president of the Chamber of Commerce upon the trip made to the West Coast of Vancouver Island was presented at the meeting of the directors yesterday. In explanation, Mr. C. P. W. Schwager, the president, said that he was delaying it for a later meeting, and suggested that in view of the importance of the matters that were to be dealt with in such a report it might be wiser to delay consideration until the annual meeting when the whole body of the chamber could deal with the subjects.

In passing he said that while some of them had thought that they knew a great deal about the West Coast, it was found during the trip that they had very little conception of the industrial development that was in progress there. Moreover, they were astonished at the room for further development possible.

It had been acknowledged by those who had had the opportunity of making the trip to Alaska that the West Coast had superior attractions to offer the tourist to anything on the north-western coast. The aspect of the situation had been borne out by the prompt action taken by Captain Troup, of the B.C. Coast Service, in announcing that during another year a tourist trade service along that coast would be provided.

Son of the late Col. C. E. Panet, Deputy Minister of Militia, he is a brother of Major-General H. A. Panet, Adjutant-General.

Crew of M-822 May Be Fined And Deported

Seattle Speedboat Is Seized After Chase Off Discovery Island—Canadian Liquor Carrier Escapes

Inquiry Will Be Held by Customs

Frank Jensen and Frank McGray, who appeared before a court of inquiry at the immigration building yesterday afternoon, following the seizure of their vessel M-822 by customs officers off Discovery Island Thursday night, will appear before a customs board of inquiry this morning, when it is understood they will be fined and deported for entering Canada other than a port of entry. Mr. Hoff, acting agent of immigration, stated last night that the case was parallel to that of the M-846, whose crew was fined and deported.

Their vessel, which is of Seattle registry, was surprised Thursday evening by the customs boats Winmar and Evelyn, manned by Captain Hittancourt and Customs Officer J. I. Angus, in a secluded cove on Discovery Island. She was lying alongside a Canadian liquor-carrying launch, when the customs boats entered the cove. Both vessels started their engines, the Canadian vessel getting away. The M-822 was soon overtaken and the crew brought into Victoria. No liquor was found on the vessel, but it is Captain Hittancourt's opinion that her cargo was jettisoned during the chase.

World-Traveler Long to Reside in Victoria City

Victoria's charms are attested in a personal letter received by Mr. David Reid, of the Court Registrar's office, from Mr. H. S. Saunders, the senior member of Ayrton, Saunders & Company, of Liverpool, one of the largest wholesale druggists in the United Kingdom. The firm has connections all over the world, and the pleasant words that Mr. Saunders has to say of this city have an added force in view of the fact that they are unalloyed. He says in the course of a personal letter:

"I have been in many countries in the world, but none that appeal to me more, I think, than Victoria. It is the one place in which I could live and settle down, possibly one of these days I may. I have in my morning room at my house a framed picture of the harbor of Victoria, showing the Government House, and the good old Empress Hotel. I have stayed at many hotels in my life but none more comfortable than the Empress."

A Letter From Paris Brings News of the Latest Modes—Fashion Decries Cubist Designs, Bright Pockets, Dresses of Cold Net, Ostrich Skin Shoes and the Return of the Fan

By Tinker Belle

Yesterday I had a letter from Peggy, who is holidaying in Paris, and the information it contained was more interesting than a spy's dispatch. Far more interesting, for it contained endless descriptions of the new Autumn modes worn in the Capital of the World of Fashion.

"We seem to be due for a craze as bad as cross-word puzzles," writes Peggy, "and that is a craze for trailing dresses in the most cubist, cally cubistic colors and patterns. I have seen for a long time. They are quite beautiful and gorgeous, like the greatest of rainbows or kaleidoscope, if you know what I mean."

"In spite of boyish shingles and bangles there seems to be nothing boyish about fashions now. Contrarywise, the Parisienne is adorning herself in the most feminine clothes she can think of, with the greatest attention to detail. Such, for instance, as the tiny ornamental pockets in all sorts of shapes and colors which she stitches into her dresses to hold her unobtrusive wisp of handkerchiefs."

"In your hat or your scarf it is quite the thing to stick a small brooch painted in brilliant tints, and bright scarves are accessories essential to almost every kind of costume. Bags are made in soft, plain colored leathers, and their flaps are finished with embroidered, beaded or painted motifs, which sometimes serve as extra pockets for hanky, lip-stick or powder puff."

"I see endless wonderful dresses at the Casino. One most exquisite affair was of an almost skin-tight satin slip with a flaring overdress of gold net bestrawed all over with large black velvet flowers, put on in a casual sort of way which was most fascinating."

"The other night I met a lovely lady whose shoes fascinated me so much that if ever I happened to run into her on the street or in the Bois, I am sure I shouldn't recognize her at all. The shoes were marvellously made of ostrich skin, finely embroidered with gold."

"At the Deauville races so many women were wearing neckties most brilliantly lined and often faced richly with brocades. Personally I prefer the jaunty white velour coats with black velvet collars and cuffs."

"Full riding habits are so hot in warm weather that the other day I bought one of the adorable (and so sensible) a stylish blouse of fair femininity. Everybody carries a fan, but the new way to do so is to wear it on a linked chain attached to the waist with a small cluster of flowers."

"Mon enfant!—is it that you are, how you say?—bored with my so long letter? Never mind, bloved, I shall be coming back soon and then I can tell you more! Paris certainly knows how to dress, and I have learnt a thing or two about the amusing occupation myself."

"Yours as ever was, "PEGGY."

Second Annual Conference to Take Place Here
Vancouver Island Women's Institutes Are Making Plans for Annual Meeting to Be Held Shortly

Arrangements are being completed for the second annual conference of the Vancouver Island Women's Institutes, to be held in Victoria on October 7, and for the following two days. The sessions will be held in the members' room at the Parliament Buildings, and the district board of directors report that practically all the Island Institutes will be represented.

The question of financing the Institute conference is an interesting one, as up to last year this and other expenses have been borne entirely by the Department of Agriculture, which paid the traveling expenses of one delegate from each of the thirty-three Island Institutes. This year the institutes themselves have undertaken to meet this expense, and the ready response of an organization already noted for its generous support of all welfare work is particularly gratifying to the board of directors, which has the conference plans well in hand.

The personnel of the board is as follows: Mrs. A. Booth (Esquimalt, B.C.), president; Mrs. H. Crocker (Victoria, B.C.), vice-president; Mrs. S. W. Raven (Victoria, B.C.), secretary-treasurer; Miss E. Douglas (Lake Hill, B.C.), and Mrs. A. Robertson (Whaletown, B.C.), directors.

Conveners of the district child welfare committees, education and better schools, immigration, agriculture, home economics, community betterment, publicity, institute work and methods, industry and legislation, will all submit reports, to be followed by discussion. Several speakers of note have consented to address the delegates, and these include Dr. D. W. Brown, superintendent of B.C. Women's Institutes, Hon. W. H. Mayor Pendray, Mr. C. W. P. Schwenker, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Miss Lottie Bowron and Dr. Irene Hudson.

Presiding officers of the sessions will include Mrs. Henderson Laurie.

Comox Fall Fair Is Best Yet Held

Entries More Numerous and Largest Gathering Seen on Agricultural Grounds

COURTENAY, Sept. 11.—Something more than success in the ordinary sense is in evidence for the Comox Fall fair, when the farmers and loggers of the district are able to join hands on a fair day and meet together in one big party with all the other residents of the valley. And a very big party it was, too, for the largest gathering ever seen on the Agricultural Grounds was in attendance on Wednesday.

The executive of the Comox Agricultural and Industrial Association, special committee and the superintendency of the Comox Logging Company are to be congratulated in putting over the best fair in the district that has yet been held. To compare the exhibition with that of last year, which came two weeks later, may perhaps be interesting. Generally speaking the entries throughout were more numerous in all classes. This was most noticeable in the poultry and domestic science sections; but the lack of adequate accommodation for the splendid poultry was felt. Apart from the 400 employees of the logging company, the attendance on the fair grounds this year was rather better than last.

Better arrangements for the exhibits inside the hall were noticeable. This was made possible by a decision to display the field crop classes outside the hall, under canvas. Entries in this section, which included the potato classes, were very numerous. Many of the trade exhibitors, particularly the poultry, were in the hall. Rather more entries were made in both the cattle and horse sections, but buildings to accommodate the animals, which were very fine specimens, are sorely needed to encourage still more farmers and breeders to bring in their animals.

The sports programme was followed with keen interest. The events staged in the stadium, were witnessed by a crowded "house," and the fair grounds, owing to the presence of a good number of trade exhibitors and concession men, presented a scene of vivacity. It has been suggested by some that the fall fair and the logging picnic be an annual event. This might well be done, at least, until logging operations become too distant from the scene of the agricultural exhibition to permit of a joint venture. It is good to see agriculturists shaking hands with other industrialists of the district.

Presentation Made Retiring Minister At Port Alberni

PORT ALBERNI, Sept. 11.—The Church Hall, of St. Alban's Church here, was the scene of an enthusiastic gathering Tuesday evening, when about eighty members of the Anglican Church attended to make a presentation to a regular minister, and Mr. Steede as a layman, has carried on those duties and acted as superintendent of the Sunday School.

During this time a splendid spirit of harmony and co-operation has been fostered, and now that a new minister is being appointed it was desired to express to Mr. Steede, in a small way, the lasting affection of the congregation for him.

Mr. George H. Bird, as the oldest member of the congregation, made the presentation, which consisted of a silver inkstand, a silver pen, and in a short speech expressed the feelings of the gathering. The evening was spent in playing cards and a musical evening by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

Alberni Canal Shingle Mill Changes Hands

PORT ALBERNI, Sept. 11.—Messrs. Little Bros., whose shingle mill was destroyed by fire August 19, have purchased the Alberni Canal Shingle mill, recently operated by a Hindoo company, known as the Alberni Canal Shingle Company.

This property, which is situated at the foot of Argyle Street, has also recently suffered from fire by having the dry kiln burned. A new dry kiln is under construction, and other improvements are being made generally. Little Bros. operated what was practically an all-white mill, only one Oriental being employed.

NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

Veterans and Cumberland Open Soccer Season Here

First Scheduled Game of New Pacific Coast Football League for Victoria Will Be Played at Royal Athletic Park This Afternoon at 3 o'clock

The football season will be officially opened here today, when the Veterans and Cumberland meet at the Royal Athletic Park in the first scheduled game of the newly formed Pacific Coast League. Great interest is being aroused over the game, and a large crowd is expected to be on hand to watch the initial encounter. Stakes will be in charge, and the game will commence at 3 o'clock.

The Vets have been practicing hard for the game, and will field a team that should give the Cup Islanders some stiff opposition. At the practice held on Thursday night the members went through a good two hours' workout, and each looks to be in fine shape and ready to go the limit. The team is well balanced, and is made up of most of the players who have represented Victoria in the "rep" games for some years.

Included in the Vets' lineup against Cumberland today will be Coulter, formerly with the United Services. Coulter will play at center forward for the locals. He is a great manipulator of the ball and is in the game all the time. Last year he led the goal-getters by a wide margin, and is considered to be one of the best center men in the game.

Another player whom Victorians are sure to follow is Harry Copan, one of the best all-round athletes in the city. Copan is a native son of this city, and gained his knowledge of the game here. He will be at right full-back for the Veterans, and can be relied upon at all times.

Toni's Plump, a former star of the Victoria West and Metropolis teams of this city, will be numbered among the Cumberland players. Plump is considered to be one of the best all-round athletes in the Upper Island, shining particularly at soccer and baseball. He has played five seasons with Cumberland, and is the team's leading scorer. He is a most dangerous forward and will take a lot of watching.

Those who are new to the game, is included in the Up-Island lineup. Cont is considered to be one of B.C.'s leading center half-backs, and will captain the team today. He is a fearless player and always dangerous.

The line-ups for today will be as follows:

Veterans
Goalkeeper: Walker
Defenders: White, Full-back; Marshall, W. Campbell, Half-back; Monaghan, Preston, Centre half-back; Conti, Owens, Half-back; Brake, Phillips, Forward; J. J. Plump, Forward; Fowler, Forward; Macdonald, Forward; Howard, Forward.

Cliffe Draws With Champion

Courtesy Boxer Has Even Break After Ten Rounds With Reddick

VANCOUVER, Sept. 11.—Jack Reddick, a Canadian heavy-weight champion, was forced to the limit tonight when he battled young Roy Cliffe, of Courtney, in a ten-round draw. Cliffe earned the draw decision and he almost tumbled the crown from the champion in the first and second rounds and again in the ninth. It was a fast bout throughout. Cliffe landed the first round, Reddick four, and two were even, according to newspapermen.

The champion weathered the early storm and came back for an even break in the fourth and took the fifth and sixth by wide margins. He had Cliffe running weakly for cover time after time but failed to show championship calibre in the pinch.

The seventh round was even. Cliffe took the ninth by planting his right in Reddick's jaw time and again until the champion began falling into clinches and rounding it. Cliffe might be given a shade in the tenth on aggressiveness.

Only the experience of the champion carried him through the storm of crashing overhead rights tonight. Cliffe has a good left that he does not use often enough. But he can fight and can take punishment.

Reddick was slow and he missed a vicious right upper cut so often that he grew weary flinging it.

Referee Addison and Judge Tom Harnett called Cliffe.

Market Prices Sweep Forward

Strong Buying Lifts Prices—Motors Develop Strength—Copper Shares Waken

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Stock prices swept forward again today on speculative buying attracted by a continuation of easy money rates and fresh evidence of improvement in several lines of business. The usual week-end profit-taking was generally well absorbed, closing quotations disclosing a long list of net gains ranging from one to nearly two points. The industrial average broke through to another record high level, approximately thirty industrial stocks exceeding their previous 1935 high prices. Motors developed another outburst of strength, which was featured by the remarkable comeback of Chrysler, which scored an extreme gain of five points at thirty-eight.

Copper Advance
Reawakening of speculative interest in the copper shares was another interesting feature. American Smelting was run up three points to 113½, the highest price since the war.

Bulls were rather sluggish in further reflection of speculative disappointment over the failure of Southern Railway directors to increase the common dividend.

Call money renewed at four and one-quarter per cent and then dropped to four. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Exchange Fluctuate
Foreign exchanges were irregular with rather widespread fluctuations taking place in some of the European currencies. Demand sterling and French franc held relatively steady at 48.44 and 4.69 cents, respectively.

Under the leadership of foreign obligations, bond prices worked moderately higher today. Maintenance of the Federal Reserve discount rate at three and one-half per cent and indications that money, which had been called to the interior was flowing back into the financial centers, gave ground for greater confidence in investment circles.

A $10,000,000 bond issue for the Redwood Air Line Railroad was announced as a prospective offering for next week.
